PI Industries mentioned that their export performance during April 2021 to February 2022 was slightly up as compared to the corresponding period of 2020-21 due to constraints on account of logisticsD.N.Bhatia

Specified Officer,

Sterling SEZ Jambusar which impacted the availability of raw material from China. Further, the higher freight cost without a matching realisation on export hampered the export momentum. However, a growth rate of 15-16 % is anticipated in 2021-22 as compared to 2020-21 on account of orders in pipeline and expected export uplift during March 2022.
